DENTAL FACTS

- The average American will spend approximately 38.5 total days just brushing their teeth in their lifetime.
- The average woman is more likely to develop periodontal disease than the average man.
- A snail's mouth is tiny, but it can contain over 25,000 teeth!
- Although flossing is essential, many people do not like doing it. 73% of Americans would rather go to the grocery store than floss their teeth.
